“Same-sex
couples
should be able to get married.”

– PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA

President Obama proclaimed June to be Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Pride Month to celebrate the progress of the LGBT movement and to recommit to eliminating prejudice against all Americans.

Come to the American Center to join in a panel discussion with Consulate Officers and representatives from Information Connecting and Sharing (ICS), a Vietnamese NGO, to discuss the history of the gay rights movement, current efforts to end discrimination and violence based on sexual orientation and gender identity, and what “freedom” and “equality” mean today

All programs are free for the public. If you would like to attend, please register at ACHCMC@state.gov or press “Join” on our events on <http://www.facebook.com/achochiminh.usconsulate>.
